

GLAMOURWEAVE

SOME FABRICS ARE MADE TO STAND THE TEST OF time... Some are woven with the threads of time itself. Glamoured garments are the height of fashion and opulence. Imbued with magic and able to hold enchantments, wards, or enough gold to buy a kingdom.

Not every fabric can carry the Glamour and not every weaver has the talent to apply the Glamour. The knowledge has yet to be found in the annals of Candlekeep, leading some to speculate that Gravenhollow, the great Underdark library, may hold the information. Rumors are more common than adventurers that have made the journey there.

While expensive, it is possible to find purveyors of these fine items. Here are a handful of shop's and suppliers.

STORMWIND SILKS

Handmade in Waterdeep by Lou Stormwind. These are highly sought after on the Swordcoast for their timeless style and ease of enchantment. A testament to Lou's talent as a seamstress and the quality of the Calimsilk used in her process.

THE WEAVERS

Newly founded in Neverwinter, not much is known about their origins. They do not produce items themselves, but are able to enchant items for a price. If it's a fair price is open to intrepertation, but they are quickly growing in renown.

WYRMWORKS

Based in Silverymoon, this shop specializes in dragon parts. Thread soaked in dragon's blood is sometimes used in the "Sealing" process. The final stitching that completes the garment and "seals" the magic. The Bloodthread can impart any number of additional magical effects to the garment

JOLLY POCKETS

A shop in Baldur's Gate that carries the finest bags and breeches. Much like the items for sale, the store is bigger on the inside than it is on the outside. A great many Bags of Holding are ordered from here.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Glamourweave can be found throughout Faerun if you know how to find it. The Red Wizards of Thay, Yuan-ti and Drow most assuredly have their own variants. Also be assured that their uses are nefarious.

Glamourweave cannot be destroyed though natural means or low-level magic. There are stories of long forgotten tombs containing flawless items ready to be worn again.

While resistant to destruction they are not immune. A Threadripper, from the garments creator can "Unseal" the item, destoying it and releasing the magic stored. This is not recommended as the results can be unpredictable.

"COMMON" GLAMOURWEAVE

Wondrous item, uncommon

Sometimes called Shiftweave. This simple Glamour allows the fabric to change color based on temperature, lighting, mood of the wearer, or any other number of reasons. Grants +1 to Persuasion(Charisma) checks in appropriate company.

"UNCOMMON" GLAMOURWEAVE

Wondrous item, rare

This level takes on a moving pattern across the fabric. These are custom ordered to ensure the buyer gets the pattern and colors they want. Normally only worn once as a statement piece. It is considered a fashion faux pas to wear a pattern twice. Grants +2 to Persuasion(Charisma) and Performance(Charisma) checks in appropriate company.

TRUE GLAMOURWEAVE

Wondrous item, very rare

Projects a moving pattern that moves around the wearer. Perhaps a hat with tiny dragons circling your head or a dress on fire. Once per day grants one(1) automatic success on any Charisma check, as anyone seeing the effect is enchanted by it's craftsmanship.

GLOOMWEAVE

Unknown

Not all weaves serve the good of Faerun. Gloomweave covers these cursed artifacts, as they bring great despair to the possessor. Once cursed, only the maker's Threadripper can destroy the item, lifting the curse.
